DEPARTMENT OF
PUBLIC SAFETY AND CORRECTIONS
CORRECTIONS SERVICES

5 YEAR STRATEGIC PLAN
FY 2020-2021 TO 2024-2025.

Submitted: September 2019
VISION STATEMENT

The Louisiana Department of Public Safety & Corrections creates a safer Louisiana by providing correctional programs committed to the protection of the public; safety of our staff; security of our incarcerated population; services to those victimized by crime; and opportunities for positive behavioral change in those remanded to our custody and/or supervision.

MISSION STATEMENT

We achieve our vision through safe, secure prison operations and community correctional programs; development and implementation of effective criminal justice policies for Louisiana; and the provision of rehabilitative opportunities for our population that supports their successful transition into the community.

PHILOSOPHY

We respect the need for public safety and operate our programs and services in a way to ensure a better Louisiana. We respect our employees and understand the challenges inherent in their provision of public service. We respect the dignity of our prisoner population and our probation and parole population and work hard to not only comply with federal, state, and other mandates, but also to provide an environment that will enable them to live a productive life upon release as a means to reduce recidivism. Corrections Services strives to maintain an environment where high ethical standards are expected and performance accountability is regarded as a critical element for our success.
GOALS & PRIORITIES

Goals and priorities are built around the Department’s commitment to public safety and rehabilitation and serve to guide our performance in carrying out our mission. These include:

I. Staff and Offender Safety

We provide for the safety of staff and offenders by maintaining an organized and disciplined system of operations. All employees are provided training on the principles of the Code of Ethics of the American Correctional Association to demonstrate our commitment to professional and compassionate service. Our employees conduct their duties and responsibilities with a high degree of integrity and a respect for the value and dignity of human life.

II. Provision of Basic Services

We provide services relating to food, clothing and shelter. We are further committed to delivering quality and cost effective health care services that maintain medical and behavioral health services during the offender’s incarceration and to prepare him / her for release by providing linkage to care in the community.

III. Opportunity for Change

We promote moral rehabilitation through program participation and provide an environment for offenders that encourages positive behavior change. On behalf of individuals demonstrating motivation for change and a desire to participate in programming, the Department seeks educational, rehabilitative, and productive work opportunities, either within the institution or in the community for individuals under supervision.

IV. Opportunity for Making Amends

Through the opportunities to work and volunteer in prison jobs and educational programs, make restitution, participate in community restorative initiatives, and communicate in victim-initiated victim-offender dialogue, offenders are able to repair and/or learn from the harm caused by their crime. We believe that victims of crime have the right to an active role in shaping how their needs can be met.

V. Reentry

We recognize the role of community participation and support in the successful delivery of our vision and mission. By using evidence-based practices and following criminal justice reform legislation, we will increase compliance with conditions of parole supervision and the ability of the offenders to reintegrate with the end goal of safely reducing recidivism within Louisiana. We are committed to working with the public to reduce barriers and stigma faced by offenders that hinder their successful reintegration upon their return to our communities.
PRINCIPLE CLIENTS AND USERS

Corrections Services serves the citizens of the State of Louisiana by providing programs and services to ensure the safety of the public.

Victims’ rights groups, citizens, and communities are served through programs focused on notification, restoration, and opportunities for offenders to make amends.

Those incarcerated in Louisiana for felony offenses receive services through the Administration, Incarceration, and Canteen programs at each state prison facility, and the Local Housing, Transitional Work Programs, and Reentry programs for offenders housed in facilities operated by Louisiana sheriffs. Families of the incarcerated are also served by Corrections Services through the various rehabilitative programs which are offered to incarcerated offenders that promote the family unit and provide instruction on family values.

Offenders under supervision in the community by Probation & Parole receive access to programs and resources through the Administration and Field Services Programs in each Probation & Parole District in Louisiana.

Corrections Services works in partnership with local law enforcement to share relevant information about offenders and to provide identification of offenders through fingerprinting and DNA testing. Probation and Parole Officers serve as peace officers and assist local law enforcement and the U. S. Marshal Service with service and execution of warrants. The Department also assists local law enforcement throughout the state with chase and apprehension of suspects, drug interdiction activities, crowd control and other tactical responses by the Chase and Tactical Teams.

STRATEGIC LINKS

Human Resource Policies Beneficial to Women and Families Link: Corrections Services provides flexible work schedules to accommodate employees with child care or other family issues, where possible; has an Employee Assistance Program which provides information and guidance for employees and/or family members; supports the Family and Medical Leave Act; and provides eligibility for health and other insurances for employees and/or family members.
DUPLICATION OF EFFORT

The Department avoids duplication of effort through various means. Strategic partnerships with other state agencies (Louisiana Workforce Commission, Louisiana Department of Children and Family Services, Louisiana Department of Health, Louisiana State University Health Sciences Center, Department of Education, Louisiana Technical College System, and Louisiana Board of Regents) have been developed to coordinate the efficient and effective provision of services to the offender population.

Staff engages in internal reviews and compiles a monthly performance report which is widely circulated to assist in internal decision making. Senior Staff meet regularly to review reports and, based on the data that is collected, to consider whether individual programs are achieving established goals. This review of performance data assists management in identifying strengths and alerts staff of areas to monitor.

The Department also works to establish best practices and document efficiencies, while working to ensure that what has been learned can become standard operating procedure. In addition, the Department works to clearly define mission and objectives for all programs to ensure unique and complementary activities across the Department.

Performance audits and other external evaluations are carefully reviewed to eliminate potential duplication with other state agencies and within the Department.

POTENTIAL EXTERNAL FACTORS WHICH MAY AFFECT GOAL ACCOMPLISHMENTS

The potential external factors that may affect goal accomplishments are stabilization of the growth in incarceration, the labor market, changes in legislative mandates, limited funding, the judicial system, and sentencing difficulties.

The relationship between education, poverty, and crime is a critical factor that may also affect goal accomplishments. Statistics show that the level of education is directly linked to the extent of poverty in America. Louisiana ranks 47th in the country for high school graduation rates. Individuals living in poverty face an increased risk of adverse outcomes, such as poor health and criminal activity. Louisiana ranks 3rd nationally for families living below the poverty line.
THE BASIC NUMBERS

Incarceration rate is based on the number of state or federal prisoners per 100,000 resident population. For more than 20 years, Louisiana’s incarceration rate has been the highest in the nation. As a result of the historic criminal justice reforms of 2017 and the reinvestment into criminal justice, Louisiana’s prison population has declined from a peak of nearly 41,000 offenders in 2012 to just over 31,000 as of the end of FY 2018/2019. Similarly, the number of citizens on supervision by the Division of Probation and Parole has decreased from a high of nearly 73,000 individuals to just over 60,000 as of the end of FY 2018/2019. In 2018, Louisiana fell to 2nd place in incarceration rates nationally when Oklahoma’s rate exceeded Louisiana’s.

Projections from the PEW Center on the States in 2017 indicated Louisiana’s incarceration rate would continue to rise without strategic action. With PEW’s technical and research support, the work of the Louisiana Justice Reinvestment Task Force, and the support of Louisiana’s Legislature for bi-partisan reform, Governor Edwards signed into law a package of 10 reform bills aimed at addressing the drivers of Louisiana’s incarceration rate. PEW projected a small decline and stabilization of our population based on the historic reforms. We exceeded those projections and produced a first year savings of $12M. The reform package provided for a reinvestment of 70% of the annual savings each year back into criminal justice efforts.

As we look to the next five years, we are eager to implement evidence based approaches using the reinvestment funding that will continue to reduce our prison population, while making sure that Louisiana strategically:

1. Focuses prison beds on the most serious offenders;
2. Strengthens Community Supervision;
3. Clears away barriers to successful reentry; and,
4. Reinvests savings into recidivism reduction and crime victim support.
THE CHALLENGE

Decision-makers usually examine incarceration rates in terms of fiscal impact. The incarceration rate in Louisiana has historically been the highest in the nation. While we have made significant progress in recent years to address the causes of this ranking and are beginning to see positive outcomes, we continue to rank second nationally in the number of individuals incarcerated per 100,000 citizens. This continues to demand attention.

Incarceration is costly to the state, to our local communities, and to our state’s citizens. When an offender isn’t returned better than we received him upon conviction of a felony, then the cost of recidivism must consider the cost of prosecution, re-incarceration, and loss of all social and economic benefits that come with having a productive citizen. Additional losses include the erosion of families, public safety and secure communities.

The model of focusing on incarceration and releasing the offender with little emphasis on rehabilitation and reentry has proven insufficient. A new model that addresses the needs of offenders, while at the same time addresses the needs of the community is critical and our work with criminal justice reform and justice reinvestment is proving to work. While there is more about this work within this report, the annual report on our justice reinvestment efforts can also be found at www.doc.la.gov.

Reentry poses two fundamentally interrelated challenges: 1) providing for the public’s safety and welfare, and 2) ensuring that the returning offender properly integrates back into the community as a productive citizen. The need to guide these two competing interests requires collaborative “buy in” from numerous agency partners as well as citizens within the community.

Community support is vital to reentry efforts. The use of initiatives that address both the community and victim’s issues is the key to effective and long term success of reentry efforts. The use of restorative justice processes aids in the long-term healing that is necessary for the community, the offender, and just as importantly, the victim. Without community-wide acceptance of reentry efforts, returning offenders’ odds of success in the community are decreased, which increases the likelihood that they will recidivate.

Equally vital to our success in Louisiana is ensuring that reentry efforts are duplicated for state offenders housed in local level facilities, where over half of the state’s offender population is housed. As such, a component of our reentry success will also include evaluation of the services provided to this unique population.
PROGRAM EVALUATIONS

The Division of Prison Operations routinely coordinates and conducts monitoring visits of state prisons; local facilities through Basic Jail Guidelines compliance audits; and transitional work programs through Standard Operation Procedures compliance audits. These visits are designed to monitor performance and adherence to standards and policies. In addition, the Division of Probation and Parole conducts site visits of its district offices throughout the state to monitor performance and adherence to standards by district offices. The Office of Management and Finance performs site audits of human resources, information technologies, fiscal and budget areas of operations to verify compliance with Department and state policies and regulations. The Division of Internal Audit develops a multi-year audit plan to examine and evaluate internal controls of the Department’s operational activities and ensure compliance with regulatory policies and procedures.

In addition to our internal audit procedures for operations, our agency is accredited by the American Correctional Association and maintains compliance with national standards set forth by the Commission on Accreditation.

The emphasis on reporting has shifted beyond collecting and reviewing information to collecting information that will also enable decision makers to measure the relative success of Agency programs, policies, and practices. In this way, management will be apprised of developing problems and can determine solutions and implement changes to alleviate them.
